All That We Could Do

We've done all that we could do,
Now, Lord, we give him up to you,
To grade his life, which you know best.
We hope he rates high in his test.

Lord, you are the beginning and the end,
Father, brother and a friend.
Help us, Lord, to understand,
You have us in the palm of your hand,

We'll miss him; we know we will,
But faith in God can help us still.
Rest in peace, so that in the morn,
You'll be awakened by Gabriel's horn.

Footprints

One night I dreamed I was walking along the beach with the Lord.
Many scenes from my life flashed across the sky.
In each scene I noticed footprints in the sand.
Sometimes there were two sets of footprints,
other times there were one set of footprints.

This bothered me because I noticed that during the low periods of my life, when I was suffering from anguish, sorrow or defeat,
I could see only one set of footprints.

So I said to the Lord,
"You promised me Lord, that if I followed you,
you would walk with me always.
But I have noticed that during the most trying periods of my life there have only been one set of footprints in the sand.
Why, when I needed you most,
you have not been there for me?"

The Lord replied, "The times when you have seen only one set of footprints, is when I carried you."
